Mark is still on board. He was shifted from director to chief of investigations in Commerce. I talked to Ted Leonard and he felt they really needed to beef up their investigations section. I heard recently from Ted that Mark is doing well and they will probably coming to us after they complete their full agency review to put even more emphasis on investigations inbanking securities and corporations.

He's being very unreasonable and I know he's met with numerous officials many times on this. He's one who won't leave the waiting room if he knows I'm around - and was very insistent again today at the parade. I could not believe he and a colleague had my parents deliver all that same info to my house tonight after I'd just spoken to him again about it.

Also, we're not getting rid of mark Davis are we?

Regarding Goodman, DMVA issued an RFP based upon the grant money in the capital budget. Goodman was the only responsive bidder; however, he is asking for what the department believes as too high of fees. He met with Russ and Nizich and was told he needs to work with DMVA to resolve the fee issue. He was not satisfied. DMVA offered space for him to work but from what I understand he wants his own rented space with brand new computers.

Kris - could u find out from whomever is to be monitoring Valley issues - was I the only one to have seen the letter to the adn Valley-section editor this week from a young woman who said she's tried to contact us many times and keeps getting rebuffed - sounds like she's on a Gov's Youth Task Force but gets no responses from "me" in all her attempts at contacts. Did anyone follow up on that letter? Colleen or Michelle or Mark or Communications people?

Also, Bob Goodman cornered me at parade today - encounter AGAIN about his territorial guard issue. Is very insistent on having to see me again about it. Then he tracked down my parents, they had to deliver a bunch more inforation from him to me about the SAME issue tonight. They had to deliver it to my house.

Yup no sweat on the trip. 5pm tonight is the deadline on tkts so if its a go we'll need to know before then, but I can understand Todd's concerns as well.

You have no idea how jazzed I am about Michael W!!!!! Been to several of his shows and performed his songs since the early 80's. Thank you SOOOOOOOO much. Too bad about Annette, she is a really good person and would have loved to make it I'm sure.

Hi fb. I'm talking to todd about trip if/when he calls this morn. He thinks it makes no sense, the logistical headaches plus the costs for a short amount of time. He may be right - so don't sweat it if it doesn't come together - I'll let u know as soon as he let's me know.

Annette was invited to join us for Michael W Smith lunch - shell be out of town and is so bummed bc he's a favorite of her's. She told Janice shed be crying herself to sleep in her pillow knowing she missed meeting him.

I guess the Gov's House is pretty torn up w/repairs, hope he'll overlook that!

I know that you all want the best for your hardworking employees, and a one-size fits all solution isn't necessarily going to work. The union has turned down some of our initiatives and I'll have a synopsis of those sent to you ahead of the Cabinet meeting if we're still on for Tuesday. I'll check on Monday and make sure the synopsis gets to all of you.

I had the same experience as Walt, except my stack looks more like 8 inches. I have to admit they get a sympathetic ear from Commissioners who hear nothing but recruitment and retention complaints from all divisions. I recognize that we're in a negotiation, and I gave them no commitment other than hear them out, which I did. I'd like to hear more about the proposed AO, though.

I, for one have been contacted, and left with an approximate 5 inch high stack of paperwork. I do recall that this general issue has been discussed between all of us earlier, I also understand that we are working for a fair resolution to these negations and had stated so.

Commissioners:

I'm aware that Bruce Ludwig, Business Agent for the APEA-Supervisory Unit, has either met with some you or is requesting a meeting with you. I want to remind you that labor negotiations are just that - negotiations. We have been negotiating in good faith with the union which represents some employees in your department.

I have my charge from Governor Palin and I understand what the bottom line is. What I need you to do, is remember that as Bruce tells you his concerns - you have perhaps not heard the issues from my perspective.

Please contact me directly with any questions you might have as a result of your conversations with Bruce. I have done more to be transparent about labor negotiations than, I believe, any other Commissioner, by posting our last best offers online. You can access that information here:

http://www.state.ak.us/local/akpages/ADMIN/LaborContractUpdate.shtml

We are all in this together. We all need quality, professional State employees. Governor Palin has the draft administrative order I referred to in our last Cabinet meeting and I expect we'll be moving forward shortly.

Thanks for your patience.
